Dear Sir:

This will confirm my intention to visit you at your office on Wednesday, October 25, 1950, unless I hear from you that it will be inconvenient for you to see me on that date. I expect to leave Newark on an early train and should arrive in Washington around noon. In accordance with our agreement, I will call you upon my arrival.

I appreciate your willingness to see me and to arrange interviews with personnel members of your organization.

Very truly yours,
